

The GCC at a glance

- We have registered more than 3,000 chiropractors since the first in 1999
  - We publish the Code and standards that all chiropractors must meet
  - It is illegal for someone to call themselves a chiropractor if they are not registered with us
  - We can take action against a chiropractor if they fail to meet our standards
  - We set the educational standards chiropractors must meet and assure the quality of chiropractic education
  - We regulate chiropractors in the UK, Isle of Man and Gibraltar
  - We require all chiropractors to carry out 30 hours of continuing professional development training each year
  - Although we are funded by chiropractors, we are accountable to Parliament
  - We require all chiropractors to have £5million worth of professional indemnity insurance
  - We have not changed our registration fee since 2012 when it was reduced from £1,000 to £800 per year
  - There are 14 people on our governing Council, 7 chiropractors and 7 members of the public
