

Register of interests

John Walsh

Lay Chair Member of the Professional Conduct Committee and Health Committee
May 2021

I am required to complete and annually update a declaration of interests form to register my financial and other interests that could potentially conflict with my GCC role above. I must also ensure that any significant changes throughout the year are notified to the GCC immediately. I have provided an up to date list of my interests below.

These include:

- direct financial interests
- indirect financial interests which relate closely to GCC activity
- non-financial interests
- interests of those close to me –any financial and non-financial interests of close family members¹ and people living with me that could be thought of as relevant to GCC activity.

I am aware that, in addition to providing this list, I am also required to declare any interests at the start of any GCC meeting where any particular interest conflicts with some or all of the business to be discussed at that meeting. I must also disclose any conflicts that may arise prior or in the course of a GCC hearing.

Direct financial interests

Any activity for which I am or have been paid for within the last five years, whether or not the activity relates to the work of the GCC.²

Current activities (not related to the work of the GCC)– paid

Lay Member: Employment Tribunals (ET)

¹ This includes spouses, partners, parents, children (adult and minor) siblings and personal partners of any of these.

² This includes payment by an educational institution, an association, a company, or other body seeking to contract with you. Chiropractic members should declare any directorships or partnerships in companies or businesses relating to their practice of chiropractic.

Lay Examiner: Royal College of Surgeons of England and Wales (RCS)

Lay Partner: Health and Care Professions Council (HCPC)

Lay Member: Bar Tribunal Adjudication (BTAS) Disciplinary Pool:

Lay Member (Reserve) Statutory Committees: General Pharmaceutical Council (GPHC)

Lay Member: Insolvency Licensing Committee, Institute of Chartered Accountants of England and Wales (ICAEW)

Lay Chair/Adjudicator, Social Work England

Self Employed HR consultant

Paid activities over the past 5 years (not related to the work of the GCC) but no longer engaged in:

Lay Member, Disciplinary Committee, Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA) 2010 – 2020

Lay Chair/Panellist Fitness to Practise, General Medical Council/Medical Practitioner Tribunal Service (GMC/MPTS) 2006- 2016.

Indirect financial interests

Any connections with persons (family members), companies or bodies I have, or have had within the last five years, which have a direct financial interest in the work of the GCC.

None

Non-financial interests

Any unpaid office or roles, membership of or involvement in organisations, associations or other bodies in the last five years which are regulated in any way by the GCC or whose activities could be relevant to the GCC.³

None

Interests of those close to me

Any financial and non-financial interests of close family members⁴ and people living with me that could be thought of as relevant to the work of the GCC, within the last five years.

With effect from June 2021, my spouse is a Lay Member of the GCC Professional Conduct Committee (PCC) and Health Committee (HC).

Professional registration

Any professional registrations I hold:

Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development (FCIPD).

³ Chiropractic members must declare any memberships of a chiropractic professional association whether UK based or international. If they or a family member or close associate hold any office in such an association this should also be declared.

⁴ See footnote 1.
