

Register of interests

Kenneth Young

Registrant Member of the Professional Conduct Committee and Health Committee

May 2021

I am required to complete and annually update a declaration of interests form to register my financial and other interests that could potentially conflict with my GCC role above. I must also ensure that any significant changes throughout the year are notified to the GCC immediately. I have provided an up to date list of my interests below.

These include:

- direct financial interests
- indirect financial interests which relate closely to GCC activity
- non-financial interests
- interests of those close to me –any financial and non-financial interests of close family members¹ and people living with me that could be thought of as relevant to GCC activity.

I am aware that, in addition to providing this list, I am also required to declare any interests at the start of any GCC meeting where any particular interest conflicts with some or all of the business to be discussed at that meeting. I must also disclose any conflicts that may arise prior or in the course of a GCC hearing.

Direct financial interests

Any activity for which I am or have been paid for within the last five years, whether or not the activity relates to the work of the GCC.²

Full time work at the University of Central Lancashire (12/2019 – present)
Full time work at Murdoch University, Perth, Australia (2008 – 2019)
Part time work as a chiropractor - radiology consulting (2000 – present)
Successful application for personal research grant, 2018. Award: £1600 through Royal College of Chiropractors

¹ This includes spouses, partners, parents, children (adult and minor) siblings and personal partners of any of these.

² This includes payment by an educational institution, an association, a company, or other body seeking to contract with you. Chiropractic members should declare any directorships or partnerships in companies or businesses relating to their practice of chiropractic.

Examiner, Council on Chiropractic Education Australasia Competency Evaluation for Overseas Trained Chiropractors (2013 – 2019)
Member, Medical Review Board, Spectrum Imaging, Pty., Ltd. (Australia) (2013-2019)

Indirect financial interests

Any connections with persons (family members), companies or bodies I have, or have had within the last five years, which have a direct financial interest in the work of the GCC.

Wife, Helen Young, works as a chiropractor (2021 – present in UK, 2008-2019 in Australia)

Non-financial interests

Any unpaid office or roles, membership of or involvement in organisations, associations or other bodies in the last five years which are regulated in any way by the GCC or whose activities could be relevant to the GCC.³
